Palestinian officials say security forces are searching for two Fox News journalists abducted in Gaza Monday. They say authorities are trying to determine who took the two men - an American and a New Zealand national. New Zealand Prime Minister Helen Clark has sent diplomats to the region to work with Palestinian authorities to secure the journalists’ release. Press rights group Reporters Without Borders has called for the men’s release. It says they were doing their jobs and can in no way be held responsible for U.S. policy in the region. Several foreign nationals have been kidnapped and released in Gaza this year.
The Who is currently touring in support of Endless Wire, its first album since 1982.

- one or more recordings issued together – originally released on 12-inch phonograph records (usually with attractive record covers) and later on cassette audiotape and compact disc
- a book of blank pages with pockets or envelopes – for organizing photographs or stamp collections etc
